We've already fielded some questions about the STAR applications and renewals that we mentioned in today's update.

To clarify: if you have already applied for the basic STAR exemption, you do not need to renew as it renews automatically.

If you are a senior citizen and qualify for the Enhanced STAR exemption (all owners are 65 years or older, combined income of $84,550 or less) then you need to reapply every year unless you have enrolled in the STAR Income Verification Program. Please refer to the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance here for more information.

Hope that helps!
